

The Queenslander Pictorial.

RECEIVED
THE QUEENSLANDER
10/10/1898

THE BUILDING OF THE BATTLESHIP.
From a drawing by Hugh Ferriss in The New York Tribune

THE QUEENSLAND FOR SEPTEMBER 11, 1918 (PART II)
FARTHEST WEST IN QUEENSLAND.

CHAMBERLAIN HOUSE, ON THE QUEENSLAND BORDER.

THE BORDER GATE FROM THE SOUTHERN TERRITORY, FERRY RIVER ROAD.

LOOKING SOUTH FROM CHAMBERLAIN'S HOUSE TO THE FERRY RIVER.

BOX OF BOX CATTLE CROSSING FROM SOUTHERN TERRITORY INTO QUEENSLAND.

A SOUTHERN TERRITORY BURNER'S CAMP AT THE BORDER GATE.

VIEWING LOOK DOWN PATH IN THE BORDER GATE AT LAKE KARI.
 The cleared land was not cleared in July.

LAKE KARI, QUEENSLAND, IS SEEN FROM CHAMBERLAIN'S
 HOUSE AND (LEFT) SOUTH GATE TO THE "BURNER'S."

WIND ON LAKE KARI STATION.
 This is the place in the supply line.

CATTLE RANGING AT VIEWING ON LAKE KARI STATION, SOUTHERN TERRITORY.

WITH THE AUSTRALIANS ON THE WEST FRONT.

Reinforced concrete shelter.

The barracks at Ypres, from 500 feet.

Australian official photo.

AUSTRALIA'S GREAT WATERWAY.

Scenes on the Murrumbidgee River.

Phot. by Ben L. Groom.

The Devil's Bend near Callaly,
New South Wales.

Ferry of Cuthbert between New South
Wales and Victoria near Mildura.

Members of the River Murray
Commission at Wodonga, S.A.

The South Australian Government
Steamship Industry.

A bend in the Murrumbidgee, S.Australia.

Reflections on the Murrumbidgee.

Willows on the Lower Murrumbidgee, S.A.

Boating Station, Irrigation Settlement at Wodonga, S.A.

FIJI AND THE FIJIANS.

The Coast Road, Levuka.

A native village.

Fijians in a native village, Rewa River.

Scenery on the road near Suva.

A fine hotel at Suva.

In the Botanic Gardens, Suva.

Lautoka at a distance.

The C. & R. Company's Sugar Mill at Lautoka.

OFFICIAL VISIT OF GREENWICH HOUSE.

The American Y.M.C.A.'s new visitors at British Navy Camp, Whitby, England. The officer near the left is Prof. J. Edward Chapman, D.D., the fifth from the left with cap is Capt. W. M. Jones, D.D., of Whitby.

SEPTILLINGS IN CAMP AT READING, WILTSHIRE, ENGLAND.

Three of them (Private E. B. Jones and Robinson and Lieutenant Brown) are from Oberlin, and two others (Private Stone and Fisher) are also Oberlinians.

BOW TRAFFORD BOWERS IN THE FIELD.

Tree planted in Japan. First in history of Oberlin Park, Oberlin, Ohio. The tree, who died of wounds in France, was the first.

The very Rev. Dr. J. H. Jones, of New Haven, Conn.

The Rev. Dr. A. H. Pope, of New Haven, Conn.

TWO OFFICIAL VISITORS OF GREENWICH HOUSE.

Two of the most famous of Oberlinian graduates, Dr. J. H. Jones and Dr. A. H. Pope, were present at the opening of the new building at Greenwich House, New York City. Dr. Jones, who was one of the first to enter the ministry, is now one of the most prominent of our countrymen. Dr. Pope, who was one of the first to enter the ministry, is now one of the most prominent of our countrymen.

"GOLDEN" BACANA.

From Mr. F. B. Taylor, of the Oberlin Branch, we are given the history of this "Golden" Bacana. It is a very old and valuable relic of a former life. It is a very old and valuable relic of a former life. It is a very old and valuable relic of a former life.